What do you do with the messages I send and receive at CUORE?

Your security is always our top priority.

We use automated tools to analyze interactions such as messages and video calls, solely for indications of harmful or illegal behavior. Our operators are trained and can review interactions identified by our automatic tools or reported by a user. We can use these examples to improve our technology to make it easier for you to find and remove similar content.